

Definition and Promises for Neighbourhood Policing Consultation

April/May 2017

The below definition of neighbourhood policing is being taken to consultation, so is subject to change.

Neighbourhood Policing in South Yorkshire provides communities with teams of dedicated, local police officers together with police community support officers, who listen to and work with the public, community groups, partner agencies and businesses to reduce crime, protect the vulnerable and enhance community safety through problem-solving approaches.

The below five Promises are being taken to consultation, so are subject to change.

Promise 1

Deliver a neighbourhood service which includes a number of organisations working in partnership and with the public to deliver results in a joint way

Promise 2

Deliver a neighbourhood service which will protect the vulnerable through early intervention and prevention

Promise 3

Deliver a neighbourhood service which will proactively understand and prevent crime and harm by working together to solve problems, identifying offenders and people at most risk of harm

Promise 4

Deliver a neighbourhood service which will tackle crime and antisocial behaviour

Promise 5

Deliver a neighbourhood service which will engage and communicate effectively with communities by listening to and prioritising concerns, helping us understand the issues that matter the most
