

6th March 2019

Freedom of Information Request – Reference No:20190408

REQUEST

- . • On what date did the force first begin training its officers on transgender issues and hate crime against transgender people?
- How many training sessions on transgender issues and hate crime against transgender people has the force had/carried out in total?
- How many police personnel have attended training on transgender issues and hate crime against transgender people?
- Did you use outside organisations to deliver this training? If so, which ones did you use? What materials were used in delivering this training?
- Which individuals have delivered the training?
- What due diligence do the force carry out on organisations and individuals providing training on transgender issues and hate crime against transgender people?

RESPONSE

I approached our Training Department for assistance with your request. The Equality, Diversity & Inclusion Lead has advised that Transgender training has not been delivered in isolation, instead the organisation delivers has always delivered training in all hate crime, with all five the the recordable types (race, faith, sexual orientation, gender identity and disability) covered.

Please see the below link which may also be useful for your research:

<https://www.southyorkshire.police.uk/find-out/crime-prevention-advice/hate-crime/>